PsycINFO Library Lab Pre-class Assignment

Respond

For each of the three articles, answer the questions below on a separate piece of paper.

Bring your answers to the library session.

1. Where are the authors of each paper employed? What do you think is their job (give your best educated guess)?

2. Briefly describe how each article is organized.

3. Whose studies and experiments are they writing about? Their own or someone else’s?

4. Look carefully – what is the goal or purpose of the article (this can often be in the abstract or introduction)?

5. How might a psychologist use each of these articles? Try to list two possible uses for each article.
